

SEAVISION

RESEARCH: ENGINEERS, NEW GRADUATES

Set up in 1995 in Pavia and with offices located worldwide, SEA Vision is a company specialized in the production of vision systems for pharmaceutical companies and packaging machines manufacturers.

In order to support its international commercial expansion, SEA Vision is looking for new skilled resources for their teams, that today counts more than 90 people in the world. Join the staff!

AFTER SALES

For the After Sales team, SEA Vision is looking for people with Science Degree in Computer, Electronic or Biomedical Engineering.

The resource will provide services of:

- Vision and traceability systems installation and assistance (on-line and on-site) for pharmaceutical packaging lines
- Training implementation
- Software and Hardware debug on site (worldwide)
- Customer remote assistance
- Creation of reports and problems analysis

We are looking for candidates with these characteristics:

- Science Bachelor or Specialist degree in Computer, Electronic or Biomedical Engineering
- Home area: Pavia - Milan
- 27 years maximum
- Skills on C++ e C# languages and programming general skills
- Robust skills on O.S. Windows
- Basic skills on Hardware PC
- Excellent english
- Absolute availability for national and international transfers (more than 150 days during the year)

Methods, planning skills, initiative, flexibility and a strong goal-orientation are essentials characteristics. Moreover, a good teamwork attitude and problem solving abilities complete the ideal candidate profile.

To answer this job opportunity, please contact:

Paolo Landriani (Product Manager SEA Vision):

Tel: +39.366.5674770 | plandriani@seavision.it | www.seavision.it |

SEA Vision S.r.l.: Tel. +39.0382.529576 (Simonetta Maggi, Human Resources Manager)